

ALL SURVIVORS DAY

NOV 3, 2018

A NATIONAL DAY TO STAND WITH ALL SURVIVORS OF SEXUAL ABUSE AND ASSAULT

"All Survivors Day is a call to action to all citizens to come together and help change the culture that surrounds sexual abuse and assault."

- Tim Lennon, Board President, SNAP

"This is a day to stand with the victims of sex abuse and assault. They have been silenced and ignored for too long."

- Marci Hamilton, CEO, CHILD USA

Join us as we feature inspirational messages from sexual abuse survivors, advocates, and local officials, in conjunction with a national day of action on social media using the hashtag: #AllSurvivorsDay

PHILADELPHIA

National assembly and rally to bring the issue to before the American people. We will rally in Philadelphia on November 3rd at Independence Mall (5th & Market St) at 11 am. Join those who wish to prevent further abuse and raise awareness of the ubiquity of sexual abuse in the nation.
