Author and public interest advocate Stephen Mills is a CHILD USA Ambassador

CHILD USA is proud to welcome author and public interest advocate Stephen Mills as an Ambassador.

For four decades, Stephen has advised and written for an array of nonprofit organizations in the fields of human rights, civil liberties, and the environment.

His memoir—Chosen: A Memoir of Stolen Boyhood—is the story of a revered social worker who preyed on countless boys in five different summer camps over three decades.

Learn more about Stephen and his book, available 4/26, at www.stephenmillsauthor.com.

“CHILD USA is honored to have Stephen Mills join our amazing group of Ambassadors. This beautifully written book is a must-read for parents, lawmakers, and policymakers. We look forward to partnering with him as we push for the reforms needed to prevent child sex abuse,” said CHILD USA Founder/CEO Prof. Marci Hamilton.
