

Pennsylvania Needs a Window

19 STATES, WASHINGTON D.C., AND GUAM HAVE WINDOWS

of the 26 jurisdictions that have revival laws for child sex abuse claims

11 STATES AND GUAM HAVE WINDOWS THAT ARE CURRENTLY OPEN OR SET TO OPEN SOON

- Arkansas
Opens Feb. 1, 2022 until Jan. 31, 2024
- California
Open until Dec. 31, 2022
- Colorado
Opens Jan. 1, 2022 until Dec. 31, 2024
- Guam
Open permanently
- Kentucky
Open up to 5-years after SOL expired
- Louisiana
Opens Aug. 1, 2021 until Jul. 31, 2024
- Maine
Open permanently
- Nevada
Open permanently
- New Jersey
Open until Nov. 30, 2021
- New York
Open until August 13, 2021
- North Carolina
Open until Dec. 31, 2021
- Vermont
Open permanently

13 STATES AND WASHINGTON D.C. PASSED WINDOW LAWS SINCE PA AG'S AUGUST 2018 REPORT

- New York (2-yr window)
- Washington D.C. (2-yr window)
- Montana (1-yr window)
- New Jersey (2-yr window)
- Arizona (19-month window)
- Vermont (permanent window)
- California (3-yr window)
- North Carolina (2-yr window)
- Kentucky (limited window)
- Arkansas (2-yr window)
- Nevada (permanent window)
- Louisiana (3-yr window)
- Maine (permanent window)
- Colorado (3-yr window)

9,241 CASES HAVE BEEN FILED UNDER NEW YORK'S CVA WINDOW

Of 5,314 NY CVA cases CHILD USA analyzed, 51.7% of defendants are religious institutions or orders. Of those religious institutions or orders 91.4% are Catholic, 6.4% are Protestant, and 2.2% are others religions.

See CHILD USA's Preliminary Report on the New York Child Victims Act at <https://childusa.org/final-a-report-on-the-new-york-child-victims-act-8-11-2021/>