June 2024

Passed SB246 extending the "lookback" window by an additional 3 years until June 14, 2027.

IN THE COURTROOM

ATTENTION PLEASE!

The LA state Governor did not sign SB246 before it became law. As a result, the new window extension will not take effect until

AUGUST 1ST 2024

MARCH 22, 2024

4-3 ruling by the LA Supreme Court declaring the window unconstitutional under Article II of the state constitution.

MAY 10, 2024

5-2 decision by the LA Supreme Court granting rehearing on its March 22nd ruling.

JUNE 12, 2024

5-2 decision by the LA Supreme Court reversing its earlier decision & declaring the window constitutional. Justices Scott Crichton & Piper Griffin, part of the majority in March, joined Chief Justice John Weimer & justices Jay McCallum & William Crain to revive the law.
